

Gotta Find Jeffrey a Girl © BMI by Dennis J. Barela

Jeffrey's such a lonely boy
His sexual mission is search and destroy
His only ambitions in life wear a dress
Jeffrey's got the look down tight
Different action every Saturday night
Jeffrey spends his days alone
His life's a mess

(chorus)
But Jeffrey was in love
About a thousand years ago
But then she had enough
It seemed she had something better to do
Hear them whisper: "Gotta find Jeffrey a girl"

Jeffrey is a handsome man
Use it as a weapon every chance that you can
Reciprocate you losses and run, run and hide
Hide it if you know that it's right
Use it if you know that it's wrong like it's right
Damage it don't let it commit, don't lose sight (chorus)

Girls are the one thing Jeffrey knows
Like the back of his hand
Is this what makes a lover?
Is this what makes a man?

Jeffrey's such a lonely boy
His sexual mission is search and destroy
His only ambitions in life wear a dress (chorus)
